

Budget 2015: Finance Minister Arun Jaitley seeks public view

The public will also get a say in the second budget of the NDA government's second budget.

The finance ministry on Thursday invited suggestions from the public at large for the Union budget 2015-16. In a statement, the ministry said the exercise is being undertaken to infuse more transparency into budget making exercise and to have people as partners to process of budget making.

People can send suggestions to budsugg.1516@gov. in. Last month, the finance ministry had kick started pre budget consultations with different stake holders.

The first meeting was held with state governments, where suggestions related to GST, streamlining and decentralisation of Centrally Sponsored Schemes (CSS) and fiscal transfers to states was discussed.

(Economic Times)